BERLIN ANNOUNCES THE REMOVAL OF TWO GENERALS AS RESULT OF REVERSSES

French Official Report Today Declares German Losses in New Offensive Total 120,000 Men.

BRITISH WIN NOTABLE VICTORY OVER TURKS

Italian Battleship and English Transport Reported to Have Sunk as Result of Mysterious Explosions.

(By Evening Herald Leased Wire) Paris, Sept. 29 (12:32 p. m.)—German newspapers today announced that two generals unnamed, have been dismissed from German command in the western war zone in connection with the recent setback at the hands of the French and British, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam to the Exchange Telegraph company. It is probable, the dispatch adds, that a new German commander in chief of the western armies soon will be appointed. In this connection the name of Field Marshal von Hindenburg is mentioned.

(Paris, Sept. 29, 12:25 p. m.)—German casualties in the recent offensive of the French and British, including killed, wounded and prisoners, were given officially by the French war office today as in excess of the strength of three army corps (more than 120,000 men).

There is no interruption of the fighting in Champagne.

Progress of the French in the Artois region, northwestern France, continues.

Both of Massiges the war office says 1,000 Germans surrendered.

The text of the communication follows:

The reports which are coming to hand make it impossible to record each day more fully the importance of the success obtained by our recent offensive movement in the Champagne district combined with that of the Artois district.

The Germans have not only been compelled to abandon along an extended front certain positions strongly entrenched in the defense of which they had been ordered to resist to the very end but they have suffered losses the total of which in killed, wounded and prisoners amounts to more than the effective strength of more than three army corps, 120,000 men. The total number of prisoners is at the present time in excess of 22,000 men; the number of cannon brought to our rear is seventy-nine. Seventeen thousand and 675 private soldiers and 516 officers, taken prisoner by us, already have gone through the town of Châlons on their way to the points where they are to be interned.

"Organized efforts are at present under way to clear up the field of battle and to take definite count of the arms of all kinds and of the war material which the enemy has been compelled to abandon to us."

BERLIN ANNOUNCES RECAPTURE OF TERRITORY NORTH OF LOOS

(Berlin, Sept. 29, 12:14 p. m.)—Recapture from the British part of the territory won from the Germans north of Loos was announced today by the war office. French attacks near Souchez and Neuville are said to have been repulsed.

In the Champagne district French attempts to break through the German lines are said to have been unsuccessful.

The text of the statement follows:

"Western theater: The enemy's attempts to break through our lines continued with bitterness in the present region of attack. A counter attack, following another fruitless British attack led to the recapturing of part of the territory we abandoned north of Loos."

A fierce British attack from the region of Loos broke down with heavy losses.

Repeated and stubborn French attacks in the region of Souchez and Neuville were partly repulsed by strong counter-attacks.

Rockefellers Will Retain Hold on Colorado Fuel

John D. Jr., in Formal Statement Today Denies Rumor That Hill Interests Are to Absorb Great Property.

(By Evening Herald Leased Wire) Denver, Sept. 29.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., today said the Rockefellers had no intention of giving up control of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company. He denied any knowledge of a prospective merger with the Hill or any other interests, and expressed the belief that the recent spectacular rise in the company's stock was due merely to war speculation.

Mr. Rockefeller's statement was drawn out by the State Bar in Colorado Fuel, which yesterday touched 63%. Asked regarding the persistent New York rumor that the Hill interests were seeking to effect a merger with the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, he said:

"If there is any such movement on foot, I know absolutely nothing about it. I have heard nothing from our New York offices about any concerted buying of Colorado Fuel by any single interest, and I think I would have been advised if anything of the kind were going on. It is my opinion that this flurry is the result of war speculation."

"Have you any intention of voluntarily giving up control of the company?" Mr. Rockefeller was asked.

"Not the slightest," was the reply. "You see that I am going right ahead with my plans for industrial betterment on a permanent basis. Of course it is perfectly well known that the stock owned by my father and myself is only about forty per cent of the whole, and if anyone gets hold of a majority, he can control the company. Our bond holdings, however, are much more valuable than our stock holdings, and we would be under the necessity of keeping some stock interest to protect ourselves as bondholders."

Mr. Rockefeller said he thought it unlikely that he would stay in Colorado long enough to attend the annual meeting of the company on October 18. The company's stock books were closed September 27 preparation to the meeting.

Mr. Rockefeller today continued his conference at the offices of the corporation.

Today's War Summary

Marked successes for the entente allies are recorded in the official statements issued in both London and Paris today.

On the western front the offensive movement is being vigorously pressed and further advances have been scored.

In Asia an important military movement against the Turks was resulted in a brilliant victory for the British in Mesopotamia.

On the other hand the Germans made the passage of the veterans at President Wilson's stand. Frequently the president waved his hat to the old soldiers. The cheering in the reviewing stand in front of the White House was almost constant.

As a fifre and drum corps of veterans passed playing "Rally 'Round the Flag, Boys," many in the president's stand joined in singing the chorus. As each contingent went along, applause broke out afresh and many of the old soldiers responded to the president's greeting by waving flags.

Tired by the march from the capitol to the White House, a little more than a mile, the veterans looked exhausted when they reached the president's stand. Many leaned upon younger and more robust comrades.

The president stood throughout the entire review, removing his hat each time an American flag passed.

The procession was headed by Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, retired, who upon his arrival before the White House dismounted and joined the president in the reviewing stand. There came detachments of regular soldiers, sailors and marines. The band of Veterans followed, and directly behind them, led by the United States marine band, came the first of the old soldiers.

The parade began to move soon after 10 o'clock and was more than two hours passing. As is progressed some of the older veterans dropped out of the lines. The old soldiers marched nearly in the center of the broad avenue while the ambulances span along on both sides.

Considering the advanced age of the men there were few exhaustions. The marching distance had been shortened as much as possible and the weather was ideal.

One corps was followed by single old soldier marching equipped just as he had marched fifty years ago, his knapsack and blanket strapped to his bent back. On his shoulder he

Investigations Galore Into Explosion

Four Separate Forces Begin Today Effort to Fix Responsibility for Deadly Tragedy at Ardmore, Okla.

(By Evening Herald Leased Wire) Ardmore, Okla., Sept. 29.—Four separate investigations were underway here today in an attempt to fix the blame for Monday's gasoline tank car explosion which cost the lives of forty-seven persons and a property loss of more than one million dollars.

The state corporation commission was investigating charges that the explosion was caused by the negligence of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railroad; the state fire marshal's department was attempting to determine the cause of the general configuration that followed the explosion; city officials were engaged in taking the general testimony of witnesses, and coroner's jury was holding an inquest over the deaths of the forty-seven persons who were killed and missing.

The total of prisoners taken in the new movement began on Saturday last is given as 22,000 while seventy-nine citizens have been captured.

In detail the last successes of the Paris war office tell of further progress east of Souchez in the Artois district, where both British and French had made huge dents in the German lines south of the important city of Lille, the taking of which it has been argued would mean the general falling back of the German lines in this region and probably far to the north.

The French war office emphasizes the importance of the victory won by the allies in their new offensive on the western front. It recounts that the Germans have been compelled to give up strongly fortified positions on an extended front which they have been ordered to defend to the last and declares that they have suffered since the beginning of the allies' offensive the loss of 120,000 men in killed, wounded and missing.

The total of prisoners taken in the new movement began on Saturday last is given as 22,000 while seventy-nine citizens have been captured.

DWINDLING ARMY

FINAL DETAILS OF HALF A BILLION DOLLAR CREDIT ANNOUNCED IN NEW YORK

All That Remains of Army of 200,000 Reviewed by Johnson Pass Before President Wilson Today.

MANY FORCED TO DROP OUT OF LINE

Bearing Their Tattered Flags, Old Muskets and Camp Equipment Veterans Cheer Chief Executive.

(By Evening Herald Leased Wire) New York, Sept. 29.—Definite formation of the big syndicate of bankers who will float the half billion dollar credit loan to Great Britain and France was begun today by J. P. Morgan and company and other bankers who have been associated with them in the negotiations here with the Anglo-French financial commission. It is proposed to make the syndicate the largest of its kind ever seen in this country and to include in its membership banks, trust companies and individuals from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

In every large city or financial center in the United States there is to be, under the present plan, a group of bankers who will act as syndicate managers in their section of the country.

Official announcement of the details of the loan reflected few departures from the plans previously outlined in unofficial reports. Nothing is said about the exclusion of purchase of war munitions. The surprising feature was the price at which the big issue was to be sold to the underwriting syndicate—$6. Previous reports had ranged from $7 to $5. The bonds will be placed on the market at $8 to the investor.

Because the bonds will be sold under their par value Great Britain and France will have placed to their credit here not $580,000,000, but $480,000,000. In other words, the two nations are paying $20,000,000 for the privilege of buying American products at top of the market prices.

In addition to the $20,000,000 the two countries will pay $25,000,000 annually for five years in interest to the holders of the bonds.

To accommodate small investors, the bonds will be issued in denominations as low as $100 and may be paid for in installments whose amounts are yet to be determined.

The parade began to move soon after 10 o'clock and was more than two hours passing. As is progressed some of the older veterans dropped out of the lines. The old soldiers marched nearly in the center of the broad avenue while the ambulances span along on both sides.
